

David Guéné

In charge of the compilation and classification in the Charanta Departmental Archives

Archivist since 2014 at the Charanta Archives, David Guéné is in charge of the compilation and classification in Angoulême. He holds a master's degree in research in history and a master's degree in archival science from the University of Poitiers. For twelve years, his tasks have focused on the compilation of private, ancient and iconographic archives. In 2023, the Sports Archives Project opened a new field of compilation in the Archives of the Charanta, and started compiling the archives of the sports clubs and athletes of the Charanta. In this project, and in collaboration with Lucile Garréta, David interviews representatives of the clubs, and classifies the collections and oral testimonies he collects.
