

Raimon Nualart

Head of inter-administrative processing services and document management and digital preservation at the AOC Consortium. La Garriga Basketball Club Chairman

Art history graduate and higher graduate in Archival Science and Document Management. Archivist and responsible for the services offered by the AOC Consortium to Catalan public administrations related to inter-administrative processing, document management and digital preservation since 2012. From 2004 to 2011, he was responsible for document and archive management at the Catalan Certification Agency. He has been an associate professor at the Escola Superior d'Arxivística i Gestió de Documents (School of Archival Science and Document Management) (ESAGED) since 2010, where he teaches the Master's degree in Archival Science and Document Management and the Postgraduate course in Electronic Document Management. He has published articles and book chapters in different specialized national and international journals and publishers on digital preservation and electronic archiving.

He is a fan of the world of sport and, specifically, of the world of basketball. Since 2014 he has been president of la Garriga Basketball Club and, taking advantage of his professional profile, he has been laying the foundations for managing the organization's archive. This presentation will explain the process that has been carried out, on the occasion of the organization's 50 years, of compiling, processing, digitalizing and describing its documentary fond to build up the digital archive and create a tool for viewing and exploitation all this documentation that has been made available to the public.